

Happiness is appreciating the little things in life.

Appreciation & Contentment

*It's the little things that bring joy,
As we journey on through life;
Which are often over shadowed by,
Years of discontent and strife.*

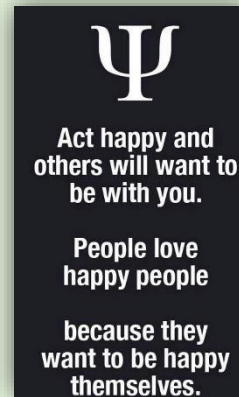

*Start by being contented,
And happy with your lot,
A Heavenly hand will guide you,
To improve on what you've got.*

*We struggle on wanting more and more,
Hate and envy rear their head;
What could have been a cheerful World,
Is full of wars and crime instead.*

*Now! Where do we go from here?
We must all stop and think;
How can we salvage our lovely home,
And pull it from the brink.*

*Many hands make light work,
If we all do the best we can;
We will have a home again,
That's fit for our fellow man.*

By Eila Webster

