Thoughts for the New Year

HAPPY
2020

As the old year slips away,
A new day takes its place;
A yearly gift from the Lord,
Given to the Human Race.

Why keep crying out for more?
A simple life is best,
Just have faith in your Maker,
And you will be truly blessed.

We take it all for granted,
We don't give it a thought;
Yet we should be so grateful,
And give thanks as we ought.

May the days that lie ahead,
Give wings to your feet,
Making this a special year,
That is wonderfully sweet.

Without Divine help we are powerless,
So take the time to pray;
And give a humble Thank you,
That's all you need to say.

You'll enjoy the year ahead,
And all the blessings we are given;
Make the most of natural gifts,
Sent down with love from Heaven.

May your new year be blessed with peace, love and joy. Sending you my heartfelt wishes with joy that never ends. Wishing you a very happy new year.
