

I Greet the Dawn

*I greet the dawn - a streak of light,
Waking from slumbers of the night;
To see unfold a new born day,
That is mine to use now as I may;
Will my chosen path be right,
For it is still veiled from sight,
Even if some unknown plight,
Put plans in disarray,*

I greet the Dawn.

*Gallantly life's trials I'll fight,
And do my best to get it right;
For tomorrow is another day,
When everything may go my way;
Rising refreshed and with Delight,
I greet the Dawn.*

By Eila Webster